

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2018
Currimundi Special School will receive

$127,106***

This funding will be used to

- Support and upskill teachers and teacher aides to improve communication and communication systems for students with a wide range of disabilities.
- Identify the most suitable communication systems and strategies for individual students to meet their communication needs.
- Provide additional support for students with complex communication needs to improve receptive and expressive communication.
- Support the access and engagement of students with disabilities in the use of technology in communication, literacy and numeracy.

Our initiatives include

- Support and mentoring for teachers and support staff to develop their skills and the quality of teaching of communication, literacy and numeracy.
- Development of explicit knowledge and teaching strategies to meet the individual needs of students in using communication systems.
- Additional teacher aide support for students with communication difficulties.
- Additional technology and technical support.

Our school will improve student outcomes by

- |  |                   |
|--|-------------------|
| • Employing an additional 1.0 FTE of teacher support to mentor teachers                      | $ 100,000 |
| • Providing additional hours per week of teacher aide time to support students               | $ 12,133  |
| • Purchasing additional interactive televisions, iPads, technical support, software and apps | $ 14,973  |

Alwyn Green
Principal
Currimundi Special School

Patrea Walton
A/Director-General
Department of Education

